Now is the Time.
Now is a good time for every man in Doniphan County to subscribe for the Chief—acknowledged to be the best County paper in the State.

It gives more reading matter than any paper in the State that does not come daily.

All publications relative to County affairs will be published in these columns, and every citizen should keep posted in such affairs.

It will keep you acquainted with all the property sales in the County, and the doings of the Courts, as we regularly publish a list of the real estate transfers, the tax-dockets of the Court, and a statement of the disposition made of all cases on the docket.

The Chief contains, every week, items of local doings and gossip from almost every neighborhood in the County. There is no better medium through which to keep acquainted with home affairs, or to convey home news to distant friends.

We give all the general and local news we can find room for, besides a large number of stories, poems, and articles of general interest; lots of fun, column of information for the farmer, and each week a column of recipes acknowledged by all to be the best published in any paper, and worth many times the subscription price of the paper.

We have our profound opinions, and generally state them in plain language.

Every person in the County could spare $2.00 a year, and would get more in return for it in the Chief than by any other investment. The more subscribers we have, and the more promptly they pay, the better paper we are enabled to issue. Now is the time to begin, with the new year.

A Card of Thanks.
EDITOR CHIEF: Sir—If you will allow me the space, I would like to return thanks, through your columns, to the "Outsiders" of White Cloud, for the very enthusiastic evidence they have given me that—think of me as they may as a citizen—they, to put it negatively, do not hold me in utter abomination as a minister of the gospel—consisting of thirty-six dollars in "greenbacks," and two magnificent volumes of the American Cyclopaedia.

Yours, truly,
C. J. ADAMS,
Pastor Congregational Church,
White Cloud, Jan. 15, 1877.

Supper and Festival.
The Ladies of Oakland Grove are giving up a Supper and Festival, to come off on Friday night, January 12th, at Hagaman's School House. A general invitation is extended.

MRS. NANNIE WILHELM,
MRS. ELA COOK,
MRS. ELA HICKLEY,
MRS. LITTLE DONLY,
Committee of Arrangements.

COUNTY BOARD.—There was not much business before the County Board, last week, except allowing accounts and approving road reports.

A portion of the streets and alleys in Severance were washed, north of the railroad, to give room for a grain elevator.

The County Attorney was directed to find office room either with the Probate Judge or the Sheriff, at his option.

D. W. Moore and B. Harding were appointed to make the quarterly examination of the Treasurer's office.

The County printing for the year 1877, was ordered to be done by the Chief office.

Mrs. Benjamin closed her Millinery store, and all removes to Doniphan, this week. She continued all her business, and her health rendered it impossible for her to continue business, and she returns where she can have the assistance and care of her mother. Mrs. Benjamin and her family, by their quiet and dignified manner, made many friends during their residence here, who regret the necessity for their departure, and sympathize with her in her affliction.

NEW LOCAL TYPE.—The reader will observe that we have new type for our local news and correspondence. Therefore, this matter will be in the same size type as the advertisements. The new type is larger and clearer, and a size smaller than that used in editorial and outside matter. We think all our readers will be as well pleased with the new arrangement as we are.

How Hush is This!—Will someone explain what this means, which we find in the St. Joseph Herald of Wednesday morning?

Married—In St. Joseph, on January 9th, by Rev. F. Linn, Mr. James D. Williamson, of Troy, to Miss Mollie Bromley, of Doniphan County, Kansas.

This office hasn't received any cake, wine, or rich.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.—TUES OF LIFE.—Armed with the sufferer once more restored to the possession of unimpaird health. These Pills are equally efficacious in all female complaints, and obstructions at the dawn of womanhood. Sold everywhere. 25 cents per box or per lot.

Porter Hargis, whose accident from the upsetting of his wagon, a few weeks ago, we have several times spoken of, died on Tuesday, from the effects of his injuries. The officer on duty, we believe, was not recovered at the time of the accident, it was thought that Hargis was but slightly injured, while it was feared that two of the others would die.

We learn that Henry Swinney, who left the latter part of the summer, for California, has returned to his home near Iowa Point, where he expects to stay, saying that Kansas is good enough for him. We told him so, before he left; but he got over it in a shorter time than we allowed him. They all find it so.

BLANKS.—A large supply of Warranty and Quit-Claim Deeds, Real Estate and Chattel Mortgages, Bonds for Deeds, Justices' Blanks, such as Summons, Warrants, etc.; Constables' Sale and other Blanks; Police Judges' Blanks, etc., etc., neatly printed and for sale at this office.

Mrs. C. C. Camp's babe died at the residence of Henry Boker, on Monday. It had been feeble from its birth, and Mrs. Camp had hoped that the climate of Kansas would be beneficial to its health.

The Doniphan County delegation for Topeka all left the latter part of last week. They took along a supply of winks to make ring for their eloquence.

Highland Station Items.

The new year of 1877 came in lovely. Hardly a cloud to be seen; everybody should be industrious at the beginning of the new year, and set good examples, and contrast good habits.

There never has been a time since we have been a citizen of Kansas, that the farmers have been so industrious at the beginning of a new year, as they have been at the commencement of 1877.

Business is brisk at our little town. Our merchants are doing a thriving business, since the farmers have been doing to sell their corn.

B. F. Herring is doing a very lively business. The old gentleman and his two sons, Bud and Bennie, are always kept busy waiting upon their customers.

James Brovings is dealing in grain, at present. Browning and the Atchison men are doing a thriving business.

There are quite a number of cattle feeders in this section of country. We will note a few of the prominent feeders: G. B. Nunn is feeding about one hundred head. Lahan Jackson is feeding about four hundred. Our friend, Wesley Wood, is feeding quite a number, this winter.

The majority of the farmers have finished gathering their corn.

There have been quite a number of entertainments during the holidays. Many interesting spelling schools in our Districts.

There will be a spelling match at the Willow Spring school house, next Tuesday evening, the 11th. Everybody is invited. We hope all will attend, both old and young.

The Iowa school is in full blast. It is under the management of Mr. Guinn.

A grand assemblage at B. F. Herring's, New Year's evening. It was one of the most pleasant parties that we ever participated in. The tables were well spread with everything good to eat.

Quite a number of our citizens have been sick, this winter. The most of them are getting better—most of them are able to do their usual work.

Our old friend, Harry Shaner, has returned from Colorado. He came around to pay a visit. He is looking well. Harry is among the very best school teachers in Doniphan County. He will commence teaching at a term of school at Watena, this week.

The Methodist will commence a protracted meeting, the second Sabbath in January, at what is known as the Iowa school house. Everybody is invited. They expect to continue the meeting some time.

Christmas has passed, and the new year has been ushered in with an extensive increase of business.

Our genial friend, James Massey, is selling piles of groceries, while Leach and the Moore Bros. are also ready with a full supply of dry goods.

Tracy, (Jolly Ben) supplies the inner man with the best of the imported material.

Pryor Frank has largely increased his facilities for receiving grain, and is now ready to accommodate all with the highest cash price for produce.

Our public school opened last Tuesday, after having taken a rest for the holidays, under the efficient management of Prof. W. H. Mason, assisted by Miss Josie Thomas. Our patrons feel satisfied that they are fully compensated for their money.

There was a grand spelling contest at the Martin school house, on the evening of January 1st. A prize was offered by J. J. Baker, the teacher of the District, to be spelled for by any one. All of the surrounding Districts were represented by both teachers and scholars. The prize, a handsome Academic Dictionary, was won, after a spirited contest, by Miss Tina Tobin, a little Miss of fifteen. The word "Cyclone" cleared her competitors. The Martin school claim to wear the badge for spelling, and wait the challenge of any or all schools.

A very pleasant entertainment was given their friends, last Wednesday evening, by Mr. and Mrs. Vandervlie. All had a good time; voting Howard the best of fellows, and Minnie the sweetest lassiest in the world.

Our friend, E. T. Powell, took the train, last Thursday, for Easton, Mo. If Emma is as happy to meet him as he was to see her, there will be a most interesting scene when he arrives. Life, you are good one—being her home with you, for the song is now, "Not for Joe."

From the vast amount of wood being hauled across the river, at this place, it is to be presumed that every man in the vicinity intends to keep warm, the rest of the winter.

The health of the country good. Doctors all wearing long faces in demand.

Blacksmiths getting rich.

The Gilmore Bros. (Zack and Bob) have only seven thousand bushels of corn in their crib.

Leona Items.
On Friday night, quite a serious runaway happened at the school house, in which Mr. and Mrs. Clifton and Mr. and Mrs. Jolly Ben, were riding. The horse, a white one, was unmanageable, and when it started, it could not be controlled. A person who would tamper with the harness of a team, while its owner was at church, is certainly rather far gone.

Elder Maguire, of Hiawatha, is assisting Rev. Nibbet in his protracted effort, at the school house, with considerable success. He is a forcible speaker.

As we passed up Main Street, the other day, our eyes were greeted by the following sign: "Boots and Shoes Made to Order." Original, to say the least, inquired elicited the information that a gentleman had opened a shoe shop in town, but it would take a Philadelpher lawyer to interpret that sign.

R. Ramsey wishes us to say that he is in need of rats, and that he will pay a nickel per head for all rats of the following description, he can get: They must be stump-tailed, short ears, three stripes round body, and a yellow streak down back. Pedigree of no consideration, providing that their front teeth are sound. Parties having animals of such description, would do well to call on him—receiving office at the Babcock farm, two miles south of Leona. Office hours, from 9 a. m. to 3 p. m.

All persons owning L. Kickenbach, will please set the at once. Pay up the old account, gentlemen, before beginning a new one. This is business. VANCE.

Brush Creek Items.
There is a protracted meeting going on at the Church on W. E. Pickett's farm.

The fall wheat in this part of the County is looking very bad, for the want of moisture.

There are quite a number of children in this part of the County, who think they will get married, and quit work.

There was a grand ball given at the Brush Creek school house, on Monday. There were three couples. Dancing was kept up till daylight. The music was furnished by Prof. Giles, of St. Joe. Mo.

Mr. James Pringle is back again, with his old chums. He has been to see his friends in Texas. He says Texas is a fine country. Some of the girls think that James can do better here. Of course, he can.

Nick Bohr has twelve hogs that will average four hundred and fifty pounds. Nick knows how to raise stock.

Thomas Flannigan has shot twelve wild geese in the last two months. He and his wife are getting fat. No wonder, having geese all the time.

John O'Brien has thirty head of hogs to sell yet. They are good ones—that is the kind John feeds.

SYLLABUS.—The following syllabus of a division in a new book from this County, has just been issued by the Clerk of the Supreme Court.

Figures vs. Fiction.
En. CHIEF:—If the figures show how do prove the superiority of the Singer Sewing Machine in general, and especially of the Singer Family Machine, of which the sales mostly consist, they at least prove that they are the most popular in the market; and I think it fair to infer that prolonged popularity and continual confidence are the truest tests of merit and superiority.

To publish all the sales of past years would be too long a story. In 1871, the Singer Company sold 181,200 machines, being 1,896 more than were sold by its two largest competitors. In 1872, the Singer Co. sold 237,758, being 45,000 more than its principal competitor. In 1873, it sold 328,444, being 113,254 more than its principal competitor, and as many as were sold by all its competitors combined! In 1874, it sold 211,679, being 148,852 more than were sold by any other Company. For 1875, I will give the returns of all the Companies: Singer, 249,522; Wheeler & Wilson, 107,749; Remington, 85,319; Howe, 35,000; Wood, 21,993; Domestic, 14,522; Grover & Baker, 12,000; W. & G. Gibbs, 14,522; American, 14,000; Gold Medal, 14,262; Wilson, 9,508; Victor, 6,103; Flower, 4,822; Elma, 1,447; Sevier, 1,207; McKay, 161. Being 146,112 more than were sold by any other Company, and only wanting 26,651 of being as many as sold by all the other Companies combined! In 1876, the Singer Co. sold 300,000 more than its principal competitor, and inferiorly, it was sold 300,000 more than its principal competitor. It was sold 300,000 more than its principal competitor. It was sold 300,000 more than its principal competitor.

Grange Notice.
J. T. Stevens, Lecturer State Grange, has accepted the invitation, and will be present at our Corn Festival, on Saturday, the 30th of January, at 11 A. M. Resolutions, all free, and a public dinner, consisting of oysters, and another table of all the good things of the land afford, free, too, for 25 cents. We hope to see our friends, not only for this vicinity, but from all over the County and surroundings. Not numbers of the Order only, nor even friends, but everybody is invited.

S. R. SHEPHERD, GRANGE.

The hog business appears to be winding up. During the greater part of the porking season, but few hogs were put in full time.

We see by the public prints, that George W. Larreche, of this County, is a candidate for Sergeant-at-Arms of the State Senate.

Mr. and Mrs. James Strahan were surprised by their friends Thursday morning in their unceremonious arrival at the residence of the A. & N., and the boys took advantage of his fifth anniversary, and presented him and his wife with many valuable articles of furniture, and other goods, and they were all indulged in, when the company retired, wishing Mr. and Mrs. Strahan the return of many anniversaries.—J. H. JONES.

The Troy Chief, Sol. Miller's paper, has not been in issue in several days. Of no other paper in the State can the same be said, or anything like it. The Chief office was moved from White Cloud to Troy, in 1872, at a distance of about twenty miles, and even then it did not make publication.—FREDERIC CHAMBERLAIN.

The Other Side.

Mr. EDGEMORE:—In an issue of the Chief, a week or two ago, we noticed an article, under the head of "Correction," from "A Justice," who has been testing his horn about an article written by "Jonathan," relating to the destitution and affliction of the Isaac Martin family, who was killed by typhoid-malarial fever, losing his wife and daughter, and the balance of the family, and had been since last September.

When we wrote the article, we did not expect so many persons to take exception; but as we wrote just what was told us by the family, and also seen with our own eyes, we still say what we said then. For five weeks, there was not a person to lift a helping hand, but Mr. Beaver, young Langston, and perhaps Mr. Tate, who says he feels really ashamed that he did not help more.

Mr. Martin says he could hear a good deal of talk about assistance, but he never came; talking and doing are two different things. There are some folks in this world who spend their whole time in hunting after righteousness, and can't find time to practice it. The extent of the disease being contagious is all a fallacy, and a very weak excuse. Suppose it being so, must these people live there and rot, and no one in a civilized community to care for them? Some say Martin would not receive anything. That might have been, but he did not have an opportunity to do so. Mr. Albert did not visit him, and no one, and it was received. Rev. Hoffman and lady called on them, and say they never saw such destitution. What brought it on? A want of clean clothing, a change which they did not have, until the ladies of Doniphan sent some clean clothes; and healthy food for the sick. It is not a supposition, that if this, and if they had, called, they would have seen all this, and if they had, it is not reasonable to suppose they would have helped them? If we did not feel the feelings of some, it was not our intention. Those that are more guilty, let them be more guilty still, but the writer of "Correction," if we judge right, is the last man to cry out persecution.

There are a great many Christians who have the form, but are devoid of substance.

"Man's inhumanity to man," makes countless thousands mourn."

In all our efforts to do good, we should not do anything but what was given to us as facts; and in this case we could not have any more correct ideas than we got from the family, and which they certify to, and throw back the falsehood and insult to where it belongs. Let us rest.

DONIPHAN, KAN., JANUARY 8, 1877.
Mr. EDGEMORE:—I have seen an article in the "Troy Chief," dated December 28, 1876, and signed by "A Justice," headed "Correction," on an article written by "Jonathan," and the one written by "Jonathan," in relation to the affliction that has fallen on my family, and the destitution that followed, is true; and further, I do think if the people who have been acting as neighbors, and come to see us, they could have lightened our sufferings. But, as it was stated by "Jonathan," it is true, every word; and the lie that was published about a certain physician trying or advising to have my family put upon the County, as a County charge, or intimating that of kind kind is false; and, further, I never said that I had no further use for him, and had so much land and corn, and could pay my own doctor's bills. The same physician is still practicing for my family, and I do believe, if I had not listened to some of my pretended friends, but sent for him in the first place, things would have been different. I do think if the people who have been acting as neighbors, and come to see us, they could have lightened our sufferings.
